"Teaching Writing through LEA"
Speaker: Michael Ryall*

Friday, January 18th

16:00-18:00hrs.

Guided writing, sometimes called the Language Experience Approach (LEA), is an effective process for identifying and working with issues in your students' writing. LEA incorporates visuals (or some other kind of stimulus) as the basis for a short, collaborative text that the teacher and students revise together. In this workshop, the presenter will demonstrate how you can use LEA to help students improve their writing fluency.

*Michael Ryall has a B.A. in English Literature from the University of California (Santa Cruz) and an M.A. in Applied Linguistics from the University of Massachusetts (Boston). He served as a Peace Corps volunteer in Cameroon, and taught English for two years in Japan. As a Senior English Language Fellow, Michael leads workshops and teacher-training seminars throughout Mexico.
